

Conference in Memory of Metropolitan Anthony of Sourozh

A one-day Conference will be held in London on Saturday the 21st of June, 2008, dedicated to Metropolitan Anthony of Sourozh and commemorating the 94th anniversary of his birth on 19th June 1914.

The Conference is being organised by the 'Metropolitan Anthony of Sourozh Foundation' and will be the first Western European Conference to be held in his memory. Its purpose will be to begin to reflect on what constitutes his legacy in Western Europe.

What was it that made him special? How was he a source of inspiration? What did he contribute to the life of the Church in this country and elsewhere? What was the influence of his spiritual vision on our lives, in our contemporary situation?

Speakers

Amal Dibo

Professor of Civilisation, American University of Beirut

Canon Dr. John Binns

St. Mary the Great, Cambridge

Father John Lee

St. Andrew Holborn London

Barbara Newman

Professor of English, Religion, and Classics, Northwestern University, Chicago

Father Sergei Ovsiannikov

Parish of St Nicholas of Myra, Amsterdam

The Conference will take place at St Sava's Church Hall,
89 Lancaster Road, Kensington, London W11 1QQ .

Further details forthcoming